Publication License

Title of Work: _____

Author(s): _____

Permission to publish the above work (including, without limitation, the right to publish the work in whole or in part in any and all forms and media, now or hereafter known) is hereby granted to the Association for Computational Linguistics (ACL), effective as of the date of this agreement, on the understanding that the work has been accepted for presentation at a meeting sponsored by the ACL and for publication in the proceedings of that meeting, and the work is not copyrighted or has a non-transferrable copyright because it has been produced by government employees acting within the scope of their employment.

Specifically, the permission covers the non-exclusive right to display, reproduce and distribute the article, including the publication in printed and electronic forms (offline or online) and any other reproductions of similar nature, on a not-for-profit basis for academic purposes.

Under such authorization, the article may also be archived, indexed, abstracted and referenced by any third parties authorized by the ACL to provide abstracting, archiving and related information services on not-for-profit and academic bases.

However, each of the authors and the employers for whom the work was performed reserve all other rights, specifically including the right to publish in a journal or collection or to be used in future works of the author's own (such as articles or books) all or part of this work, provided that acknowledgment is given to the ACL and a full citation to its publication in the particular proceedings is included.

By signing below, I confirm that I am a representative of the employer of the authors and all authors of the work have agreed to the above and that I am authorized to sign this form on their behalf.
